Check out the daily BLOG on our web page for a recap of our day in Kindergarten. Have conversations at home about the events happening in the classroom. We know your watching when you send your comments.

Arad and Layla are lost in the desert and they're trying to find their way back home. Layla is a little girl and Arad is her trusting camel. We are learning about shape, sound and movement patterns through their adventures. Today, we finally made it to the broken down palace that the prince made for Layla, but when he disappeared the palace was never lived in again. In order to open the tall palace doors, protected by the Stone Lions, we needed to solve the riddle. Ask about how the riddle was solved. Stay tuned!

Scholastic Book Orders went home today. Great selections this month and prices for sets are also great. Emergent Readers enjoy Junie B. Jones and Horrible Harry.

On a personal note... Due to changes in strategies and corporate structures, my partner has decided to leave Independence Air. He'll take a break to cleanse, regroup and begin searching for new opportunities. Our faith and belief in each other gives us much comfort. There are no accidents. His talents are amazing; so if you know of someone needing a marketing plan or strategic consultation, just let me know. :) No worries about me going anywhere! I am here for the year; more if it's meant to be.

Have a great weekend. Good Night!
